Education Means the Universal Distribution of Extent knowledge....(Leaste F.Ward)

Education is process through which human personality developments. Its not a temporary process which beings at a definite time and comes to an end at a particular point in the life of man. The word "Education" makes it clear that this process is broad based.

From birth upto death we come in contact with many things, person institution and ideas. Every moments we gain new experience. These experiences and traits bring change education is not a mare collection of information in both the senses Broad and Narrow.
